

Spirit Tree Connections is proud to now provide bereavement services at their location at 987 New Loudon Road, Cohoes, NY. The program will be managed by Chairperson, Davia Boyle, who comes to Spirit Tree Connections with over 15 years Bereavement Coordination experience and is Bereavement Studies graduate at Maria College. Richard Seik is the Co-Chairperson of this program and brings personal experience and Intuitive Development credentials to the groups and program.

Spirit Tree Connections continues its commitment to help people be whole within their path. The Bereavement program will have continuous and ongoing groups forming in both evening and daytime format. There is no cost for Bereavement group services. There will be subject matter experts and special workshops offered to members of the group at no or low cost.

The practitioners at Spirit Tree Connections have formed “The Spirit Tree Circle of Light” which is a not for profit arm that provides community services. The Bereavement program is designed to bring a concert of care for those that have the loss of a loved one, a spouse, a child, a pet.

To find out more information about upcoming groups and specific Circle of Light Events, please visit our webpage: www.spirittreeconnections.com

987 New Loudon Road Cohoes, NY 12047